FROM THE TEAM LEADERS

Welcome back and I hope you all had a good opportunity to spend some time with the family. I continue to be impressed with the friendliness of our Year Group, having seen several boys over the break. On a number of occasions they were making their way to the various libraries around the local area to continue their HSC preparations.

The boys have quickly settled back into the academic routine this week with KAI interviews being conducted over the next couple of weeks. Much discussion is taking place amongst the boys around issues identified by these interviews and the boys have a formal opportunity to set or re-set their academic goals for the term ahead.

Yesterday's assembly featured the Battle of the Bands finals, which was a hotly contested event and was enjoyed by all.

This weekend of course is the start of the Winter Sports Program and, for most of the boys, their last sporting commitment at School. Tomorrow is Gala Day and I hope everyone enjoys the day and the winter season ahead.

FROM THE STUDENT ADMINISTRATION OFFICER

It's shaping up to be a great weekend! Beginning with Football under lights on Knox 1 tonight, (bring your blanket and watch the action vs Cranbrook) then our 40th Anniversary Gala Day tomorrow with sunshine, excellent shopping, great food and coffee, non-stop musical entertainment, as well as Rugby vs St Ignatius College playing all day on Knox 1. What more could you want?

Next Tuesday is formal photographs day, and possibly the most important photo of all to be taken on the day will be the Year 12 2017 Year photo with the Headmaster and Year 12 staff on Knox 1. Don't miss your chance for posterity! Be there looking fantastic in full winter uniform, (including your blazer of course) and with your student ID card - this assists photographers with identification.

If you have never yet attended the weekly Valedictory BBQ before, next Wednesday is set to be your best introduction ever, with not only an exciting addition to the menu - grilled sausage and bacon rolls but we will have special guest celebrity chefs on duty. Mr Weeks, Mr Hemphill, Mr Ranyard, Mr Weeding, Mr Nunan and Mr Leggo will be donning aprons and cooking for the Valedictory cause! Further details will be in next Tuesday's reminder email.
