FROM THE STUDENT ADMINISTRATION OFFICER

At long last, the term break is here after a very busy 11 weeks! Our Year 11s have adapted well to the KSSA life and have worked hard on their first preliminary assessment tasks. Well done Year 11, enjoy your well-deserved break.

The Knox Pipes and Drums are now 2018 National Champions after competing at the Australian Pipe Band Championships held on Saturday 7 April at Brisbane Boys College. Sam McKay Thomas Robinson, Karthik

Surendra and Austin Wagner were part of the Pipe Band. Congratulations boys!

If your son has turned 16 and needs a Concession Card, please ask him to come and see me in the Senior Centre.

Our Cadets have been having a magnificent week, as the photos and videos posted on their Facebook page demonstrate.

I would like to wish Lachlan Sky all the best as he leaves us today to follow a career outside of School.

Good luck to the boys going on different tours during the holidays.(too many to name.) I look forward to hearing about their experiences and seeing photos of their travels.They are all very excited and looking forward to their time away.

Happy holidays everyone. See you in Term 2 in winter uniform.
