FROM THE TEAM LEADERS

Year 11 have settled back into this term nicely. There are many exciting events and initiatives being discussed with the Formal, in the last week of this term, and sizing for Year 12 jerseys among them. It has been great to see so many boys accessing the support on offer, particularly with regards to the refining of study habits and timetables.

Our new Deputy Headmaster, Mr Phil O'Regan, presented to the year group on Tuesday at Year Meeting about the Prefect selection process. As the beginning of this process approaches, I want to continue to remind our young men that a black tie does not indicate whether or not they are leaders. Whilst the role of Prefect is an important one, one that comes with responsibilities, it is important for everyone to keep in mind that the legacy that the Class of 2019 leaves behind will be a communal one, built on the contributions and efforts of the entire year group as the senior boys in the School.

As a Cadet Officer, I will be in attendance at the ANZAC Day Service and Parade this Sunday morning. That said, I would attend this impressive event even if I was not involved. In my mind it is one of the highlights on the Knox calendar. I have encouraged all those who are not directly involved to get along to support their mates and to enjoy being part of the wider school community.

I hope you have a wonderful weekend and I look forward to hopefully seeing many of you on Sunday.

SAM WHITE YEAR 11 TEAM LEADER

FROM THE STUDENT ADMINISTRATION OFFICER

Many students are not putting in their Student Leave Applications in a timely manner. These forms must be submitted for approval by the Deputy Headmaster at least two weeks before the leave is required. Could you please ensure that these are submitted in a timely manner, not the day before the event.

It was lovely to catch up with so many of you at the parent morning tea on Monday 7 May.

As students are now getting their licences, any student driving to School must fill out the Student Drivers Form and return these to me so I can register their details. If a student is driving other students to school or to sport, their parents must also give their permission.

Inter-CRU is an after-school meeting for students from schools throughout our area in Years 7 to 12. Knox is hosting the next InterCRU gathering on Wednesday afternoon 6 June in the Cultural Centre Auditorium.

Boys who require dinner when they are staying back at school studying, must put their names down by the end of lunch. They must not just assume they will get dinner by just turning up, especially after sport.

I look forward to seeing many of you at the ANZAC Service and Parade on Sunday. Have a great weekend.

GALA DAY DONATIONS FOR BOOK STALL AND BARGAIN BAZAAR - DROP OFF THIS SATURDAY 19 MAY

We are currently looking for donations for the always popular Second-hand Book Stall and the Bargain Bazaar Stall. We need you to clean out your bookcases, cupboards and garages for items no longer wanted that will become someone else's treasure on Gala Day.

If you see value in the item and would buy it yourself, please bring it along to the drop-off. Unfortunately we are unable to accept damaged goods, items of clothing, or anything that should really be thrown away. Some suggestions are books (no magazines or text books, please), toys, sporting goods, videos, DVDs, CDs, music systems, clocks, cameras, working computers, TVs, Game boys, Nintendo, Xbox, PlayStation, kitchen wares, jewellery and tools. Donations will be gratefully received.

Funds raised on the day are returned to the school in the form of gifts or through the purchasing of equipment, which ultimately helps all the boys at Knox.

The one and only drop off date for items is this Saturday, 19 May from 7.30am until 12noon.

- Bargain Bazaar items can be dropped off in the car park behind the Knox 1 Oval (entry from Gate 2, Borambil Street).
- Books can be dropped off at Gate 2A, Borambil Street (outside the Weeks Senior Academy).

Please help out if you can and don't forget Gala Day will be held on Saturday 2 June from 10am to 4pm at the Senior School.
